Visit any branch to activate this time saving feature on your account. When you sign up for It's Me 247 (homebanking) you can create distributions or transfers to savings, Christmas Clubs, Vacation Clubs or any sub account you open and name yourself.

Step 3. Close your old checking account. Once all outstanding checks and purchases have cleared your old account and all automatic payments and debts have been transferred, instruct your old bank to close the account with this account closing letter.

Remember to cancel any automatic deductions such as:

• Utilities • Insurance payments • Internet • Fitness Centers •

Also don't forget your debit card is linked to your checking account, so if you have any regular purchases linked to your debit card

• QVC • Amazon • Ebay • Prescriptions • Onstar • Satellite radio •

Review your monthly bank statement to ensure you stop them all.

Step 4. Set up new automatic payments with your new Affinity Group Credit Union account. Sign up CU*Easy pay and pay your bills on line, you can even schedule bills every month, bi-weekly or weekly. Organize your budget with this FREE and great tool. You can also complete the Automatic Payment Change Form to have your automatic payments deducted from your new Affinity Group Credit Union account.

Our helpful staff will be happy to assist you with every step.
